2008 PROFESSIONAL & VETERANS CAREER EXPO

TAMPA, Fla. – April 4, 2008 - Tampa Bay WorkForce Alliance will host its fourth annual Professional and Veterans Career Expo: Your Source: The Right Job, The Right Talent, on Tuesday, May 20, 2008, from Noon – 4 p.m. at the Renaissance Tampa Hotel International Plaza (4200 Jim Walter Blvd., Tampa). The TBWA 2008 Professional and Veterans Career Expo will offer professionals and military veterans an opportunity to meet and interview with dozens of Tampa Bay area employers looking for the right talent. Attendees can also take part in workshops to help them refine their job search techniques.

The TBWA 2008 Professional & Veterans Career Expo is for degreed professionals and former servicemen and women and the spouses of active-duty military personnel with at least two years experience in their field.

“The expo provides an engaging environment where businesses can have access to top talent in our area,” said Jamie Melendez, communications director, Tampa Bay WorkForce Alliance. “The expo will bring military veterans, professionals and employers together, while motivating participants to think critically about their careers in the 21st Century.”

The expo will kick off with an opening ceremony to salute and honor servicemen and women for their courage and sacrifices to serve our country.

To register for the expo and for a full program agenda, visit www.workforcetampa.com.
